TERMS AND CONDITIONS

- Purpose. Motion Picture Licensing Corporation ("MPLC") grants licensee ("Licensee") a non-exclusive license ("License") to publicly perform copyrighted "Works" defined below, under the Terms and Conditions specified in this Umbrella License Agreement ("Agreement").
- Law. MPLC warrants and represents that it has secured the appropriate rights, under the federal Copyright Act, Title 17, U.S.C. §101 and §106, to grant this License.
- Term. "Term" shall mean the period beginning on the "Start Date" listed on the Umbrella License Application ("Application") and shall continue thereafter for periods of one (1) year each, unless canceled by either party giving sixty (60) days advance written notice before the end of said period or any subsequent period. Each one (1) year period during the Term is referred to herein as a "Contract Year." If Licensee does not timely notify MPLC of intent to terminate, this Agreement will remain in effect for the entire Contract Year, and Licensee will be responsible for the entire annual fee due to MPLC hereunder. No refunds or credits will be made by MPLC in the event of early termination by Licensee.
- Rights. The public performances authorized by this Agreement shall take place in the Facility(ies) identified in the Application or as Licensee otherwise notifies, and shall be via any means originally intended for personal use only including but not limited to DVD, streaming, download and broadcast. The primary purpose of such performances is to entertain and/or educate authorized viewers. No specific titles, or any characters from such titles, or producers' names will be advertised or publicized to the general public, and no admission or other fee will be charged to the audience. The exhibitions cannot be used to endorse any goods or services. Works are defined as films, television programs and other audiovisual content originally intended for personal use only to which MPLC has reserved the rights to license under the parameters set forth herein and excludes premium home theater exhibitions.
- Fee. The agreed license fee for the first Contract Year of this Agreement is specified on the Application, which amount is payable to MPLC. Subsequent Contract Years may include adjustments based on various factors, including, but not limited to adjustments which: (i) reflect any change from the previous year's Consumer Price Index (CPI), and/or (ii) reflect an increase in the number of Facilities or other factors used to determine the license fee. On an annual basis, or upon request by MPLC, Licensee shall furnish MPLC with the information MPLC may require to determine the license fee for subsequent Contract Years. Following such a request, if Licensee does not furnish the requested information within thirty (30) days prior to expiration, MPLC may independently determine the license fee for that Contract Year based on its reasonable estimation. The license fee for each subsequent Contract Year shall be due and payable no later than each anniversary date of the applicable Contract Year. Late payments for subsequent Contract Years will be subject to a charge of one and one-half percent (1.5%) of the license fee per month.
- Restrictions. The specific titles which may be publicly performed by Licensee under this Agreement are Works produced and/or distributed by MPLC-affiliated rights holder companies only. MPLC represents that it or its rights holders may not possess the appropriate rights to certain individual titles, or due to the expiration of those rights during the term of this Agreement, MPLC may send Licensee at any time during the term of this Agreement binding notices that certain titles cannot be or may no longer be publicly performed under this Agreement. Such notices shall be binding and effective upon Licensee when received.
- Legally Obtained Works Only. Licensee may publicly perform only legally obtained Works covered by this Agreement. The responsibility for obtaining the Works is that of Licensee, and the costs of acquiring the Works are to be borne solely by Licensee and are separate and distinct from the agreed public performance license fee.
- No Other Rights. Licensee may not unlawfully duplicate, edit or otherwise modify the Works obtained for public performance purposes under this Agreement. Any and all rights not granted to Licensee in this Agreement are expressly reserved to MPLC and/or its rights holders.
- Separate Fees. Any separate fees which may be due to music publishers, or collection societies for music publishers, for the right to publicly perform the music contained in any of the Works covered by this Agreement are solely Licensee's responsibility and are not the responsibility of MPLC. To the best of MPLC's knowledge, no such separate fees for motion pictures are presently in effect.
- Assignment. This Agreement may not be assigned by Licensee, without the prior written consent of MPLC, except that Licensee shall (a) assign this Agreement in connection with a merger, consolidation or sale of its assets and business, (b) provide MPLC with immediate notice of the assignment including contact information for the assignee, and (c) guarantee assignee's performance of all obligations of Licensee under this Agreement. This Agreement may be assigned by MPLC.
- Tax Liability. In the event that a determination is made by a taxing authority or court of any state in which Licensee conducts business that the activity licensed herein renders MPLC liable for the payment of a gross receipts, sales, business use or other tax which is based on the amount of MPLC's receipts from Licensee, then Licensee shall reimburse and indemnify MPLC within thirty (30) days of notification therefore for Licensee's pro rata share of any such tax derived from receipts received from Licensee.
- Notice. Any notice provided for herein shall be given in person; by first class air mail, postage prepaid; or by reputable overnight carrier; addressed to the party to be notified as listed on the Application. The date of personal service or mailing of any such notice shall constitute the date of service.

In the event of such termination, there shall be no refund of the license fee. A waiver by MPLC or by Licensee of any specific breach by the other shall not constitute a waiver of any prior, continuing or subsequent breach of the same, or any other provision of this Agreement. If any part of this Agreement shall be determined unenforceable, the remainder of this Agreement shall remain in full force and effect.
- Legal Fees. In the event MPLC engages a lawyer to enforce its rights under this Agreement by virtue of the breach on the part of Licensee, of any term of this Agreement, Licensee agrees to pay the reasonable costs and legal fees incurred by MPLC.
- Collection Fees. In the event that MPLC incurs any costs or fees in connection with the collection of any amounts past due to MPLC hereunder, then Licensee shall be responsible for paying such amounts to MPLC upon demand, with interest at the rate of nine percent (9%) per annum calculated from date of demand.

This Agreement has been duly authorized and constitutes a legal, valid and binding obligation upon Licensee and is enforceable by its Terms and Conditions which may be updated by MPLC. In the event that any signature is delivered by facsimile or e-mail delivery of a ".pdf" format data file, such signature shall create a valid and binding obligation with the same force and effect as if an original signature.
- Warranty. To the extent that, prior to the commencement date of this Agreement, Licensee may have infringed upon rights held by MPLC, MPLC hereby agrees that it will not seek legal recourse or assert any claim for any and all such possible infringements which would have been licensed under this Agreement. MPLC makes this warranty only with respect to rights held by it, and is not empowered or authorized to make any such representation or warranty with respect to rights held by others.
- Jurisdiction. The Application and these Terms and Conditions contain the full and complete agreement between MPLC and Licensee and shall be construed in accordance with the laws of the United States and the State of California and the parties submit to the nonexclusive jurisdiction of the U.S. Courts as regards to any claim or matter arising in relation to this Agreement.

WHY DO WE NEED A LICENSE?

Movies and TV entertain, educate, and inspire. What you may not have considered is that this content is intended for personal, private use only and requires a license when shown in public. This provision of the U.S. Copyright Act applies to public exhibitions of movies, TV, and other audiovisual content enjoyed via sources like broadcast, cable or satellite television, DVD, Blu-ray, download, or streaming platforms.

The Copyright Act was adopted in 1976 to provide guidelines for both the creative community and consumers. Failure to comply with the Copyright Act can result in liability for damages ranging from $750 to $150,000 for each illegal exhibition, plus court costs and attorney fees.

QUESTIONS & ANSWERS

- Q: We show movies, TV, and other audiovisual content that we have purchased on DVD or Blu-Ray, downloaded or streamed through an online streaming service subscription, or via broadcast, cable or satellite TV. Do we still need a license to view or show it in public?
- A: Yes. The location requires a license regardless of who owns the content. While you rent, borrow, purchase, stream or broadcast audiovisual content, you are only granted the right to view it for personal, private use, not to perform it in public.
- Q: I already have a cable or satellite business package. Why do I also need an Umbrella License?
- A: Cable and satellite business packages provide content to your business and may also include some public performance rights (e.g., for sports programming). These packages never include public performance rights for all the content in the package. The Umbrella License gives you the most coverage commercially available to fill the remaining gaps, thus protecting you from claims not covered by the rights included in a business package.
- Q: We do not charge admission to show the content. Do we still need a license?
- A: Yes. A license is required regardless of whether an admission fee is charged. In fact, the Umbrella License only covers situations where admission is not charged.
- Q: We are a nonprofit organization. Do we still need a public performance license?
- A: Yes. The U.S. Copyright Act applies equally to nonprofit and for-profit organizations.
- Q: We are not open to the general public. Do we still need a public performance license?
- A: Yes. Any place where a substantial number of persons outside of a normal circle of a family and its social acquaintances is gathered, such as clubs, lodges, factories, summer camps and schools, requires a public performance license to show audiovisual content to its members or patrons.
